Clayton Parks and Recreation

Our three recreational facilities are located within Shaw Park, adjacent to Downtown Clayton. Shaw Park's Pool welcomes lap swimmers and sun bathers during the summer and the Tennis Center provides year-round outdoor fun.

On the other side of Shaw Park lies our flagship facility, the Center of Clayton. Built in 2000, the Center has truly become a key hub of Clayton community, health, and business. Nearly half of its membership comes from the corporate community, and with the convenience of free parking, showers, and quick access to work, it's easy to see why. We have even built our program schedule around the business community's needs including adding late evening classes to the schedule to accommodate busy seasons.

Resident Rates on Programs

The corporate community receives resident rates on all Clayton Parks and Recreation programs including fitness classes, leagues, lessons, and more. Current program guides are available at www.claytonmo.gov/recreation.

Shaw Park Corporate Membership & Admission

The corporate community receives corporate rates at all facilities in Shaw Park including the Center of Clayton, Shaw Park Aquatic Center, and Shaw Park Tennis Center. To qualify for the corporate rate at any facility, you must first prove corporate status by bringing a current pay stub and photo ID to the Center of Clayton.

Shaw Park Aquatic Center

This three-pool complex consists of a 50-meter competition pool, dive tank, and zero-depth children's pool. The Shaw Park Aquatic Center offers recreational swimming, lap swimming, and various specialty classes throughout the summer.

Shaw Park Tennis Center
